[From the Carson Appeal, Feb. 8th.]

The following are the proceedings of the Third House at the meeting on Tuesday evening:

The members were called to order with Speaker Bob Lowery in the chair, Gillespie at the Clerk's desk, and Seymour Pixley at the gate.

The Committee consisting of Mr. Pinchback and others reported that Mr. George Francis Train had been duly elected Governor in Louisiana. The Committee asked an appropriation of $10,000 for each member.

Resolution by the member from Barn Yard Square, authorizing the Speaker to pull down his vest. Carried.

Resolution by the member from Moonshine Corner, that the Sergeant-at-Arms be and is hereby instructed to clear the Senate floor of all persons not members of the Third House, save and except the "weaker vessels." God bless them. Resolution postponed until last week at early candle light.

Resolution by the member from Sheepfold directing the Sergeant-at-Arms to furnish the members ice water, with a stick in it, and that for payment of the same he shall draw his warrant on the Freedman's Bureau, to be paid out of any money not otherwise expended or stolen. Ruled out of order.

Resolution by the member from Moraltown, relative to the purchasing of a barrel of whisky for the Third House. Referred to the Committee on Public Morals.

Resolution by the member from Cow Pin Alley that the Janitor of the Capital be paid $3,000 for services to the State in the case of Janitor vs. Mary. Referred to Committee on Claims.

Resolved that the member from Snow Bird Canyon be granted leave of absence during the dog days. Leave granted.

Resolution by the member from Buzzard Cross Roads, relative to the expulsion of dogs from the Capitol grounds. Ruled out of order by the Speaker. An appeal was here taken and after the same had been thoroughly discussed an adjournment took place until next Tuesday at midnight.

An old Comstocker, being reproached by his prospective mother-in-law that he was much too old for her daughter and that he was even bald-headed, replied: "Madam, my baldness is no indication of age—it runs in the family. In fact, madam," said he in a sudden gust of confidence, "I was born bald-headed!"

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1877

Concerning Nevada Legislation.

The law-makers in session at Carson have been devoting their energies to wards remedying several evils of a social nature which have given that State an unenviable notoriety. One of these is the opium-smoking nuisance. A bill on this subject has passed both Houses of the Legislature and only waits Executive approval to become law. If we are to believe the Virginia City press, persons moving in respectable spheres of life there have become confirmed opium smokers. The habit was contracted in the Chinese dens in the lower part of that city. Young and old both fell victims to the pernicious practice, and it is having a serious effect upon the rising generation both of Gold Hill and Virginia City. The Virginia Board of Aldermen tried to effect a remedy by enacting an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for any white person to visit any Chinese opium house. This failed to reach the evil. Those who had contracted this fearful habit bought the opium from Chinamen and went home to smoke. The Legislature has applied a remedy of a different description, which reaches the Chinese as well as their white victims. The bill prohibits the sale of opium, except by a druggist when prescribed by a physician in good standing. It also prohibits any person from keeping a smoking den. An infraction of the law is made a misdemeanor, and the police are charged with its enforcement.—S. F. Bulletin.

The above statement of our circumstances is correct, and those in search of facts need not go to Virginia City to find this pernicious habit degrading and ruining its slaves. Not a town in the State where the Chinaman builds his colony but has its opium dens, into which chance or folly inveigles white men and youths. We can point to such men upon our streets, and we know that once the baneful habit is begun, there is no power which can liberate the victim. These dens are visited usually through curiosity, and the power of opium is invoked in order that one may understand the singular habits of these heathens, who voluntarily enslave themselves without reason or inducement. Once tried the reason is only too well known, and the novice does not wish for the liberty which he has lost. Druggists are restricted in the sale of poisons, and we earnestly hope that means may be devised for preventing this ruinous practice which threatens, in some cases, entire families.

Correct.

The correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle writing from Carson, characterizes Miguel's hoodlum bill as an evident attempt to impoverish the treasury and render an appropriation for the new prison impossible. The Gazette called attention to that fact some weeks ago, and it is strange to note how long it took others to sift the matter. The Enterprise now sees it in the same light, and what is much better, the legislators have also shown by their votes that they can see pretty clearly themselves. The State is too poor, in view of other pressing wants, to vote its last dollar to the care of the hoodlums, and the Assembly has no doubt determined that fact before this. The same correspondent hazards the belief that the present prison grounds are too small, and may possibly belong to private parties, which should make the State cautious how it improves them.

THE ROVER TRIAL.—The case of the State of Nevada vs. J. W. Rover was called to day in the District Court. The defendant was taken to the court room in the custody of the Sheriff and was the observed of all observers. Confinement seems to agree with him, and his condition speaks well for prison fare. He is fleshier than when arrested, and his appearance denotes neither loss of sleep nor appetite. He has signified his desire to make a plea in his own defense, and has written a speech concerning ninety pages of foolscap for that purpose. It is doubtful if a jury can be found here to try him, and if the regular panel, which embraces men from remote parts of the county, is exhausted before the requisite twelve men are selected it will be very difficult to fill the panel from a special venire issued for persons in this immediate vicinity, and the general belief is that it will take several days to get a jury, while some are of the opinion that it cannot be done at all.—Silver State, 7th.

Verdi, the composer, has given $10,000 to Busseto, the place of his birth, to educate gifted young musical artists of that town.

Grover Returns.

Governor Grover has returned to Oregon, and after turning over his executive functions to the acting Governor has started back to Washington. What Grover wants with Washington is not clearly stated, but what Washington may want with Grover is still harder to understand. This famous man's arrival and departure does not seem to have made much gladness in the Democratic camp, and they refuse to embrace him or make any unseemly fuss over the man who invented Cronin. My countrymen, what a fall was there a few short weeks ago, and his life was disturbed by brass bands, speeches and receptions; and now no tin horn even so poor to do him reverence. He who was worshipped is not now annoyed by idolatry. The man whose cheek outstripped the growth of our Republic, now finds himself a stranger in a strange land and has not where to lay his political head.

Can politicians and demagogues learn anything from such a history?

TELEGRAPHIC.

The Eastern press contain somewhat conflicting opinions of the effect of the discussion by the Electoral Commission. The decision, however, favors the Republicans more than it does the Democrats. The Republicans are therefore jubilant and the Democrats somewhat despondent. Field was much surprised and confused on receipt of the decision. The Commission by deciding that they would act only on the evidence accompanying the certificates, causes the large mass of testimony taken by the Congressional Committees to fall to the ground as useless. A special says the only remaining question in the controversy is the effect of the appointment of an Elector who is ineligible to hold the position. The States in which this question may be raised are in Louisiana, where two of the Electors on the Republican ticket were, on the 7th of November, United States office-holders, and that of Oregon, where Watts was chosen and a certificate given by Grover to Cronin. In Louisiana the two ineligible Republican Electors resigned their Federal office before the day on which the Electoral College met, and failed to appear at the meeting. The remaining Electors therefore declared that vacancies existed, and proceeded to elect the same two persons who were originally placed upon the Electoral ticket.

The Commission yesterday heard testimony on the eligibility of the Florida Elector Humphreys. Four hours argument was allowed. The Committee decide the case to-day.

In the House a resolution was offered to remove Wells & Anderson to more comfortable quarters. They will probably be removed or very soon released.

Sheridan Shook, proprietor of the Union Square Theater, New York, has forwarded his check for $10,000 to the treasurer of the fund for the sufferers by the burning of the Brooklyn Theater—75 per cent. of the sum realized by benefit at theaters in this city. The remainder will go the families of Murdoch and Burroughs.

Rear Admiral Wilkes, of the U. S. Navy retired list, died yesterday morning.

FOREIGN.

Yesterday Queen Victoria opened Parliament in person.

On the arrival of Marquis of Salisbury at the House of Lords yesterday, he was vociferously cheered, as was also Earl Beaconsfield.

London reports have reached Belgrade of great military activity along the Black Sea and the Pruth, the Russians having placed a pontoon across the river. The Serbian Cabinet say they are desirous of speedily coming to an agreement, and wish the negotiations to proceed in Belgrade to avoid loss of time.

Cable dispatches say that Prince Gortschakoff has retired from his position as Minister of Foreign Affairs on account of ill health. He is succeeded by Count Adlerburg.

The Sultan ignores politics to give Midhat Pasha a constitutional trial. It is believed in Constantinople that he has been dead some days.

SILVER-PLATED WARE.—S. N. Davidson announces that he will sell during the Holidays quadruple silver-plated, Napkin Rings, of Rogers' make, with initials engraved thereon, for 25 cents, largest size, 50 cents. Silver trinkets with initials engraved, 25 cents, and all other goods in proportion.

TWO COFFINS.—A man who married a Carson woman woke his bride up last night and called out in tragic tones, "See, Maria! Oh Heavens! the shadow of death is upon us. I see the apparition of two coffins side by side upon the floor."

"Oh, go to sleep, you damned fool. It's only my shoes."

Much relieved the poor man sank into a tranquil slumber.—Va. Chron. We saw the man yesterday in Carson. He took us aside and whispered, in an almost choking voice, that he meekly acknowledged the above fact published by the Chronicle, but did not wish anything said about it in the Reno papers as it might favor the Prison Appropriation Bill.

"MOTHER-IN-LAW!"—Why need she be an object of abuse and derision. Now we have an opinion, thusly: Show us a man who slurs his m-in-law and we will vouch that his wife is not a desirable acquaintance. There is too much of this fun and slang at the expense of the women who brought up our wives and husbands. It don't become us.—Carson Tribune.

We did not expect this of Edward. We know that he must have a wholesome respect for his contemplated mother-in-law, but thought that a good looking fellow like the Deacon's son would have clear sailing.

A man who arrived in San Francisco by the last steamer from the Southern coast and took a room at the Central Hotel, committed suicide by blowing out his brains. He left a note saying that he died by his own act, and was tired of life. He signed his name S. Goss, and on his person was found a discharge from the U. S. army as hospital steward, dated Camp Bidwell, Aug. 29, 1876, in the name of Samuel Lyons.

DISTRICT COURT.—The verdict in the case of J. F. Smith vs. Jas. Mayberry was decided in favor of the plaintiff. Counsel for defendant asked a stay of proceedings for ten days in which to file a motion for a new trial.

The case of Stephen Connor vs. A. Rager, was continued for the term. In the case of J. C. Hagerman vs. Tong Lee, Pete Marker appealed from the order of the Court, requiring him to pay the judgment out of money garnished in his hands. Statement on appeal was settled by Court.

In Shoemaker et al vs. Hatch et al, the motion to correct certain findings was taken under advisement, and ten days allowed in which to file motion for a new trial.

Three Italians and three Swiss filed their intention of becoming citizens of the United States.

Court then adjourned until Monday, Feb. 19th, which day is set aside as Court day.

A REMINDER.—John, James and William should all engage company for the Good Templars' social on Monday evening next; and as for Mary, why if Thomas forgets the occasion she need only remind him of the thorough preparations which Haswell Lodge has made for the comfort of guests on that evening.

MORE GAS.—The Episcopal Church will be lighted by gas hereafter. The workmen were laying the necessary pipes to-day. We should think all of our churches might make similar arrangements, as it would avoid much trouble and danger of life.

Paraffine, Wax and Stearic Acid Candles at Coggeshall & Co.'s.

DR. FLATTERY.—This successfully celebrated physician and surgeon, whose world wide reputation and 25 years graduated practical experience as a specialist, etc., will arrive at Chamberlain's Hotel, Reno, Saturday, February 10th, to be consulted free of charge one week, and where he will continue to treat successfully with new remedies, embracing the best approved treatment from the most remote Oriental and Occidental countries for the cure of all forms of chronic, special and general diseases, however malignant and inveterate they may be.

German Student Lamp Chimneys at Coggeshall & Co.'s.

All who were indebted to the Reno Lumber Co., previous to Jan. 1st, 1897, are hereby notified to call and settle their accounts on or before February 1st, 1897. All accounts not settled at that date will be otherwise collected.

LAST NIGHT.—A very poor house greeted the German Band last evening, but this is generally the fate of first class entertainments in small towns. The few who did attend will certainly not regret it, and will be apt to retain the impressions produced for years to come. It seems to us that men and women should grow better and purer through the influence and study of such music as we heard last night. There is certainly some potent spell which rules it all and humbles a man in reverence to the genius which created beautiful harmonies and invented the language of cultured and refined souls. There was in the selections and renderings last night convincing proof of the power and intelligence of music. As one listened to Schubert's Serenade, which might voice the love and longing of a world, there seemed woven in with the notes the history of a life, all too short, yet one in which the young Viennese touched the musical heart and gave his spirit to posterity in tender, loving strains of harmony. There was in the more modern "Banditenstreich Overture," by Suppe, still the touch of genius, but less pure and ennobling, while the selection from Richard Wagner's "Tannhauser" was oddly original, and gave at times a glimpse of those beauties which are to make "the music of the future." All these, under Carl Beck's artistic hand, were given in the careful, exact manner which has characterized Germany as a land where thoughtful men are subjects and art is king.

JAIL REPAIRS.—Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Lamb took us into the County Jail and showed us our apartments. We commenced to interview him, but after undergoing this agony for several minutes he kicked us out; however we got the local. The County Commissioners recently ordered such repairs to the jail that it should be safe for prisoners to be confined therein. These instructions are being carried out, and Lamb is making it impossible for prisoners to escape. The door hinges and hasps were held in place simply by large screws which any one could easily remove by a little exertion. These screw-bolts are being removed and larger ones put in and then riveted. The three windows are near the cells, so that parties could with ease hand almost anything through them to a prisoner or he pass things out. These windows will be sheathed up to within 2 1/2 feet of the top with sheet iron. With these improvements it will be nearly impossible for prisoners to make their escape. Lamb means to hold on to a man when once in his clutches.

BODY FOUND.—Through the railroad officials we learn that the body of Frank Wilson was found yesterday near Camp 24, about twelve miles this side of Truckee, and taken to that place for interment. It will be remembered that about ten days ago a man's leg was found at the same place, although no trace of the body could be obtained. Yesterday the body was discovered by section men who were at work on the track. One arm and leg were missing, and the head was badly crushed, showing that death must have been almost instantaneous. Wilson had been intemperate for some time, and is supposed to have been drunk at the time when he was run over. The snow plow ran over him covering his body with snow and preventing its discovery until yesterday. Wilson had been in the employ of the railroad in charge of a China gang, but was discharged some weeks ago. The remains were taken to Truckee where an inquest was held to-day.

STOLEN.—Several complaints have reached us lately to the effect that the Gazette is taken from door-steps after being delivered. We receive subscriptions at this office, and if there is any man in town who wants the paper and can't pay for it, he can get one without money by leaving his name at this office.

Extra Table Wines for family use at Coggeshall & Co.'s.

STAGE.—Hymers and Chism's stage for the Pyramid Lake mining district will leave Reno on Mondays Wednesdays and Fridays at 7 A. M. Returnings will leave the mines on Tuesdays Thursdays and Saturdays at 11 A. M. This arrangement to take effect until further notice.

PRICES REDUCED.—Mr. P. Schwartz who has a barber shop at the International Hotel, has made a reduction of 100 per cent. on the old prices of barber work. He now only charges 25 cents each for hair cutting, shaving and shampooing. Dyeing, etc., same price as before. Give him a call and keep the prices down.

Choice dairy cattle for sale, cheap for cash. Apply at this office.

Jottings.

Some unfortunate fellow lost a watch and chain at the butcher shop of B. B. Norton. In another place Mr. Norton informs the loser how he can regain his lost property.

Opium smoking is still on the increase in our midst. Is there any virtue in a Board of County Commissioners for the suppression of nuisances? Cohn's clothing store in Chielovich's building, is now ready for business.

"Bullheaded bulldozer" is the very latest.

A dog fight on Virginia street to-day was well attended and gave universal satisfaction.

The trout are beginning to feel the hard times and bite a little. That is the reason you see so many men buying fishing tackle.

We acknowledge the receipt of several important documents from our representatives at Carson.

The case of F. Van Dooran and J. Peterson, charged with housebreaking at Peavine, came up for trial this morning before Justice Richardson, and on account of the absence of an important witness was continued until Monday.

It is understood that the Gold Hill Amareur Minstrels will visit Carson and Reno in the near future.

The Enterprise says L. L. Crockett, one of Reno's solid men, was in town yesterday looking at the business prospects.

Last evening, near the hour of seven, Joe King's horse fell upon him, breaking the fibula or small bone of Joe's leg, and severely spraining his ankle. He will be around in a week or two.

CHICKEN LITTER.—Some unmitigated scoundrel last night stole 14 chickens from the hen roost of Deputy Sheriff Young. Mrs. Y. had a nice brood of 23 fowls, but a Chinaman or some other lover of chicken, last night when it was cold enough for any man of respectable habits to be in bed, feloniously appropriated some rude implement and removed several boards which enclosed the innocent fowls, and took under his protecting care 13 hens and one rooster. Sheriff Young justly thinks that the scamp has no respect for the law of man or God, but sets him down as one possessed with an evil desire for chicken.

THE FOOT QUESTION.—The Comstock papers are discussing the foot question, and it may not be out of place to give the following legend as related to us by a Carson lady a few days since. It was to the effect that when her son James was born he had such enormous pedestals projecting each way from his ankles that it was four weeks before they could tell which way he was going to walk. James still lives and is now a prominent citizen of Carson.

NEW ROAD.—The citizens in the south end of our county have asked for aid in building a direct road to Virginia. We have before mentioned this matter and our Commissioners should see to it, examine the circumstances of the case and render such aid as the citizens of Washoe valley ought in justice to ask. We do not believe that the road will cost $10,000.

DEADWOOD TICKETS.—Any man who wants to go to the Black Hills should call on the C. P. R. ticket office and get a round ticket to Deadwood City for $110. One can take their choice either to go to Cheyenne by rail and thence 250 miles by stage, or to Sidney by rail and thence about 225 miles by stage. But $110 pays the whole bill by rail and stage.

FITS.—Wm. Kehew, the celebrated vag, who was sent up for 45 days, had several fits in the county jail last night. Dr. Bishop was summoned to his bedside and pronounced his case an attack of apopleptic fits. To-day Kehew was removed to the county hospital.

GONE.—Our friend Dr. R. H. Chase went below last evening. He will remain away for several months at least. We are sorry to lose Dr. Chase from our town, as we found him a gentleman and a physician of skill and ability.

MRS. H. ANDERSON, Physician and Mid Wife. Office and residence on north side of Plaza street, between Peavine and Center streets, Reno.
